

FINAL TEST A

Listening 1

Lera: Hi Pavel. How are you doing?

Pavel: Hi Lera. Well, I'm trying to study for the French test next week, but my brother Timothy is listening to music in his bedroom and I can't study. He's so noisy!

Lera: I'm calling you to talk about our trip. We have to think about what clothes we need to take.

Pavel: But there's a lot of time to plan the trip, Lera.

Lera: No there isn't! We're going to leave for Thailand in two weeks, you know!

Pavel: OK. What day are we going to leave?

Lera: The flight leaves at 10:30 on Tuesday the fourth.

Pavel: 10:30. That's early. We need to be at the airport at 8:30 so we can check in.

Lera: I know. I'm going to buy some train tickets online. You know, for the train that goes to the airport.

Pavel: OK, great. I bought a travel guide yesterday and I read about the things we can do there. It's very exciting. The forests and the beaches are beautiful.

Lera: I know. Remember that it's the rainy season, so we can't spend all day on the beach.

Pavel: I know, I know! It's going to be hot though and we can swim in the ocean when it rains.

Lera: Oh wow! That's cool. What clothes are you going to take? I'm going to take clothes for the beach – shorts, T shirts and a hat for the sun.

Pavel: OK, but remember that the first three days we're going to stay in the city. So you need to pack some pants and shoes too.

Lera: OK, good idea!
