

UNIT 11 QUIZ B

Dasha: Hi Anna. Come in.

Anna: Hi Dasha. What are you doing?

Dasha: I'm going to leave for college on Saturday and my mom said I have to decide what to take. She said that I can't take it all.

Anna: What's in the box?

Dasha: It's a box of things from when I was a child. I have to decide what to keep.

Anna: Look at this guitar. Do you play the guitar, Dasha?

Dasha: No, I don't. This was my grandfather's guitar; he was a musician. He was a wonderful musician.

Anna: But your grandparents were teachers, weren't they?

Dasha: Yes, but my grandfather was a music teacher. My grandmother was a French teacher and she wasn't good at music.

Anna: I think the guitar's a beautiful memory. You have to keep it. My grandmother was an artist and I have a lot of her paintings. What's this?

Dasha: Ah, my comic books! They were my favorite when I was a child.

Anna: But they're so old. Are you going to keep them?

Dasha: I don't know. They were a birthday gift from my aunt when I was 12.

Anna: Is this your phone?

Dasha: No! That's an old phone that was in our house when I was a child. I don't know why I kept it. I guess I don't need it.

Anna: What about this? What is it?

Dasha: That was my favorite stuffed animal when I was a child. His name was Caramel and he was very special!

Anna: He's so cute! I have a lot of stuffed toys from when I was a child.
