LISTENING 1

Interviewer: Good evening and welcome to Thoughts at Midnight , our late, late show.

In our lives we meet a lot of people... friends, people we work or study with, neighbors... Tonight we're going to talk about people who have been important in our lives.

Caller 1: Hi there. My name's David and I've met many people in my life but there is one person who will always be the most important on for me. When I was a child my parents had very busy lives, my mother was a lawyer and my father was a doctor, and I spent weekends and vacations with my uncle and aunt. My uncle Frank was a chef and he was, and still is, an amazing cook. He took me to lots of restaurants and I ate delicious roasted meat, spicy noodles, and grilled fresh fish from the ocean. I can smell it all now! Today I am a cook. So, my uncle Frank was a very important person in my life and I've never forgotten the special times I spent with him.

Caller 2: Hi, I'm Amy. When I finished college last spring, I went on a trip with my boyfriend to Peru. Mike and I have always loved traveling and so we decided to go to Peru. One day it was boiling hot and we decided to go to the country. We took a bus into the mountains. The bus dropped us off in a small village, and I left my backpack on the bus! In my backpack were all my clothes and my money. An old man in the village was so kind to us. He helped us to make calls to the bus company and he drove us in his car to the nearest town. I don't remember his name, but he was one of the kindest people I have ever met.

LISTENING 2

Leo: Hi there. I'm Leo, and I just started today.

Nadia: Hi Leo. Nice to meet you. Today's my first day too. What are you studying?

Leo: I'm studying music, and you?

Nadia: I'm studying journalism. What do you think of the school? Isn't it cool?

Leo: It is! It's amazing. It's a whole new world... I haven't met many people though. In fact you're the first person I've talked to!

Nadia: Don't worry. I arrived this morning and I've already met lots of people. In fact, I've been here for three hours and I've added five people as friends on Instagram.

Leo: That's crazy! When I came for an interview last March I met some of the music students, but I haven't seen them here today. Have you met your roommate?

Nadia: Yes, we just met this morning. I had a flight yesterday but I missed it, so I had to catch another this morning. I went to my room to leave my luggage and Candice, my roommate was there. She seems really cool. A friend of mine from high school is here somewhere and we wanted to room together, but I think it's probably better to meet new people.

Leo: I agree. Well, I have a roommate but I haven't met him yet. I think he's arriving later today.

Nadia: OK. So, you haven't met him. Do you know his name?

Leo: No. Hey do you want to get coffee? My next class starts at 12.00, so I have a break until then.

Nadia: Yes, let's do that. Let's go to the café over there. I went there this morning when I arrived and I had the most amazing breakfast. I think it was the best yogurt and honey I've ever had.

Leo: Really?

Nadia: Well, I got up very early this morning for the flight so I was very hungry. So... I don't know! But it was better than most I've had. Let's go and see what the coffee's like.
