

EVOLVE LEVEL 2, Audioscript for Unit 1 Quiz B

Brian: Hi Jane. Great to see you again! How is your family? And how's the new school?

Jane: My family are well, thanks. And the school is pretty good. It's my second day today. The teacher is friendly. I like her a lot.

Brian: You're lucky! Mine is not friendly, but she's a good teacher. My classmates are great. They're so funny!

Jane: Where are your classmates from?

Brian: Some are from Japan, and some are from Europe such as France, Italy and Germany. Max is my roommate in the apartment. His family is from Berlin and he skypes home sometimes, so I see them on the computer. They are pretty friendly too. What about your classmates? Where are they from?

Jane: The ones in my class are all from Mexico, like me. My roommate in the apartment is also my close friend, Elena. She is from Argentina. We talk about everything in Spanish! Brian, whose driver's license is that under the table?

Brian: I don't know. Let's see. Oh! It's Max's driver's license! Look, that's his name and his photo!

Jane: Oh, he's cute! You should introduce me to him.
