

EVOLVE LEVEL 2, Audioscript for Unit 4 Quiz A

Michel: Hey, Thomas. Are you busy?

Thomas: No, not at all. I'm writing an essay for school. It's really boring.

Michel: Ok, well, I am thinking about dad's birthday gift. It's next week and we need to buy him something. Any ideas?

Thomas: Well, what about getting him a sweatshirt? He likes clothes.

Michel: But we don't know his size. We can get him a gift card so he can choose his own sweatshirt.

Thomas: No, that's boring. Plus he never goes shopping for clothes. Mom always buys him everything!

Michel: Good point. He could start buying his own things at his age!

Thomas: Well, that's not our problem. We need to choose a gift for him. Why is he so difficult?

Michel: So, if not clothes, what else can we give him?

Thomas: I don't know. What about asking sis? She's good at these things?

Michel: We can't. Our sister is lifting weights at the gym right now. She's training for the race next month.

Thomas: That's it! How about we get dad some new stuff for his tennis matches?

Michel: Does he need something?

Thomas: I think his hat is very old. He needs a new one.

Michel: But that's his lucky hat! He never plays without it. You can't take it.

Thomas: Yeah, but he only keeps it in his bag. He wears the other hat, the blue one with green stripes.

Michel: Ok, let's go for the hat then. How much are they?

Thomas: About $18 I think.

Michel: So that's $6 each. You, me and sis. Where do they sell them?

Thomas: We can go online and order it. Where's your laptop?
