

EVOLVE LEVEL 2, Audioscript for Unit 5 Quiz B

Catherine: I arrived early at the office for that job interview. I wore my clothes from my graduation from college. I felt happy and amazing. The job was mine, I was sure. The man, I think he was the boss, never smiled once. When I sat down on the chair opposite his desk, he looked angry. I felt horrible. He asked me really difficult questions... so... I didn't answer them very well. At the end, he said, 'This job isn't for you!' He then stood up and walked out of the room. I cried and then stood up and went out too. It was horrible!

Jim: I did it! I got the job! I arrived at the office early and waited outside the interview room. I saw one guy walk out but he didn't look at me. Then it was my turn. I knew I was the right person. I graduated from college and I learned to drive all in one year. I felt pretty cool. The boss was great. The morning was amazing and it was perfect. He asked me a lot of difficult questions about what I eat, what sports I play, where I go on vacation, all about my friends and then about my hobby – marathon running. I answered everything and then I asked a question at the end. He said, 'You have the job!' I cried for five minutes! It was a surprise! My mom went crazy when I told her. 'Wow!' she said. She was so happy.
