

EVOLVE LEVEL 3, audioscript for Unit Quiz 1A

- John: Hey, Angela? Have you seen this article about friendships in Top magazine?
- Angela: No, I haven't. What does it say?
- John: Well, according to the article, there are certain questions that show if someone is a true friend.
- Angela: Really, should we test it out? You ask me questions about a friend of mine.
- John: OK, give me the name of your friend.
- Angela: Um, Kim. She's a friend of mine from college.
- John: Let's see how well you know Kim. Is she single or married?
- Angela: She's single.
- John: OK. Can you tell me where she was born and raised?
- Angela: Yes. She was born in Houston and was raised there before moving to Boston to go to college.
- John: Great. Now, can you tell me what sports or hobbies she's into?
- Angela: She's into karate. She's really good at it. But she doesn't like baseball, which I like to play. And she likes to see new movies. We're going to see that new movie about a soccer player's wife after class today.
- John: And who does she live with?
- Angela: That's easy! We're college roommates so she lives with me. Does that mean Kim and I are true friends?
- John: Well, no, not according to this article. I could find out all these things about anyone using social media.
- Angela: That's true. So what questions can I answer that show Kim and I are true friends?

John: Try these. What kind of personality does Kim have?

Angela: Hmm. She's very intelligent and also sociable.

John: Try this one. Do you know if she likes spinach?

Angela: She hates it! Does that make us true friends?

John: Yes, I think it does!
