

EVOLVE LEVEL 3, audioscript for Unit Quiz 5A

- Chuck: Hey, Olga. How's it going?
- Olga: Hey, Chuck. I'm doing well. How are you?
- Chuck: Well, I'm OK, except that I lost my phone and I can't find it. I've even used the Find My Phone app, and I still can't find it.
- Olga: Oh, that's too bad. Did you drop it somewhere?
- Chuck: I have no idea. I was walking down Seventh Avenue when I saw a friend across the street. I ran over to talk to her, and we chatted for a while. After that, I wanted to call Jon, and I couldn't find the phone. I thought maybe I'd left it in my apartment, so I took the bus back home.
- Olga: I'm really sorry. I hate it when things just disappear like that.
- Chuck: Honestly, I searched my whole apartment this morning. I looked under the bed, behind the doors – even in the fridge!
- Olga: Do you want me to help you look for it?
- Chuck: Well, if you don't mind, I'd be very grateful. Maybe it just fell off my desk while I was studying. I don't know. I'd love to get it back. I can't send email or call my girlfriend. It's terrible!
- Olga: OK. Let's go and look for it. If you lost it in the street, someone will return it, I'm sure.
- Chuck: Oh, wait a minute! I remember I was sending an email just before I saw my friend yesterday.
- Olga: Really? So maybe you did drop the phone on Seventh Avenue. OK, don't worry ...
- Chuck: No! I sent the email from inside the drugstore. I'd gone into the drugstore for some aspirin and shampoo. Maybe I left it on the counter when I was buying those things. I'll go and check right now.
