I got married in June, 2014. Only a week after the wedding, I was walking on a beach in Thailand when I lost my wedding ring. I was so upset! I thought I'd never get the ring back. But then something amazing happened. I was searching for an old friend online when suddenly I saw a "Lost and Found, Thailand" website. I clicked on the link, and the first thing I saw was my ring!

Max, NY

While I was living in Freeport, New York, I had a black cat named Zero. He was a great cat. One day, there was a big storm, and Zero got scared and ran away. He just disappeared! I thought I'd never get him back. Then five years later, when I was living in Buffalo, NY, I got a call from someone. They had found Zero. He was living on a farm all that time.

Kayla, CA

Once, I found a purse in a supermarket. There was exactly $100 in it. I think someone dropped it while they were waiting to pay. I wanted to return it to the owner, but I didn't know where they lived. That evening, while I was listening to the local radio, I heard a news report about a lost purse. I called the number and found the owner. I was so happy, and so was she!

My car broke down on the highway once. I started walking to get some help because I was really in trouble. I couldn't fix the problem. When I was walking back to my car, I realized I had no idea where it was. It was so embarrassing! I had to call the state police to help me find it.
