

EVOLVE LEVEL 3, audioscript for Unit Quiz 7B

Tina: Welcome to this week's TV Review Podcast. I'm Tina Armstrong, and today I have three very different shows to tell you about.

The first, The Stone of Destiny, is a series many fans have asked me about. If you haven't seen it yet, it's a science-fiction series which tells the story of three spaceships from different planets. They are looking for a stone which will give them power over the universe. The special effects are amazing, but what our listeners like most are the main characters, who all have strong personalities.

A show that I have been looking forward to is Movie Star Chef, and the first episode did not disappoint. The famous guests had to make a meal with eggs. I was shocked to see that half of them were completely useless in the kitchen! It was funny watching them make a mess and break things. If you like watching famous people doing funny things, I recommend this show.

I'm not a fan of game shows, but the first episode of Ten to One was very exciting. The host, Jeremy Black, asked the ten people on the show questions. When someone made a mistake, they had to leave until there was one man left – he had to answer three questions and get them all correct to win a car. The questions were about sports, history, science – everything really – but as the show continued, the questions got more difficult. It's very dramatic!

So, my top recommendation for this week is ... Ten to One! Next week I'll have a special review of three TV movies: a romantic comedy, a musical, and a horror movie. We will also have a very special guest! Don't forget to visit my website and tell me which shows you want me to review!
