

Unit Quiz 12A

Ivan: Hi, Valery. Are you ready for the exams next week?

Valery: Oh, please. Don't remind me about the exams. I've been trying to study geography all weekend and I can't recall any of it. I don't know what I'm doing wrong. I'm starting to worry that I won't be prepared.

Ivan: You will be. Stop worrying. It's only the work from this semester, so it's probably less than you think.

Valery: I know, but I still can't find a way to memorize things.

Ivan: I've found this great website called Study Hacks, I think... I'm not sure about the name now, but I'll check and send you the link. It's great because you can download flashcards or make your own.

Valery: You can do what?

Ivan: You know. Flashcards. With the information on pieces of paper. You can test yourself. I found some for the poetry that we have to study. They have flashcards with some of the information about the poem on one side and the rest on the other.

Valery: OK, cool.

Ivan: Then there are YouTube videos.

Valery: I know, but there are so many. I don't know where to start.

*Ivan: Well, they organize them into channels. I'm using this science one which is great. The woman who does it is a teacher, and the way she explains the concepts is really easy to understand. I'll send you that link as well.
Hey, why don't you come to my house tomorrow evening? I've arranged to meet up with some people from class. We're going to go over our physics notes. What do you think?*

Valery: Oh, thanks Ivan. I did look at physics on Sunday, but to me it's all a vague collection of formulas in my head. None of it makes sense. So, great. What time?

Ivan: Around 7?
