

Unit Quiz 7B

Katya: Hey, Vince. How are things?

Vince: Hi Katya. I'm doing really well. Are you going to the college picnic on Saturday? It sounds really fun. We've all been studying so hard that we never have time to meet up. The picnic will be a great opportunity to catch up with everyone.

Katya: Yes, I'm going. I can't wait. Do you know if Dylan is going? I haven't seen him in forever. He hasn't been very good at keeping in touch recently.

Vince: He hasn't put his name on the list for the picnic. Apparently he said that he had too much work to do and decided not to go.

Katya: Who told you that?

Vince: I saw Emma on Wednesday in the library. Dylan had told her that he wasn't feeling in the mood for the picnic and that he had too much studying to do.

Katya: But the last time I saw Dylan he told me he had passed all his exams and he had handed in all the essays that we had to do. I don't know, Vince. I don't think I believe him. I'm a bit worried about Dylan.

Vince: Me too. Did you see the photo he posted on Instagram the other day? And what he put as his status update?

Katya: I saw the photo and he looked so miserable in it. Then he said he hadn't been out for weeks. That's not like Dylan.

Vince: You're right. I don't like gossiping about him like this, but maybe he split up with his girlfriend. If he doesn't reply to our texts, there must be something wrong.

Katya: Come on, let's go find Dylan. We've got to persuade him to come on Saturday. It'll be good for him to spend a day in the park.
