

EVOLVE LEVEL 5, Unit Quiz 11A

- Alex: Hi, Sally. Do you have a moment?
- Sally: Sure, Alex. What's up?
- Alex: Well, I'm a little worried about something I heard. About a possible office move ... ?
- Sally: Yeah, I heard something about it too. But that's just a rumor, Alex. I don't think you should worry about something that might never happen.
- Alex: I don't know ... I heard it from Mr. Miller, from accounting, so it's from a trustworthy source. I don't believe Mr. Miller would ever make up a story like that.
- Sally: Hmm ... You're right. He's not someone who would be spreading false information around. And he would probably be informed about something like that before we were. But when did Mr. Miller tell you about that?
- Alex: Yesterday. We went out for lunch, and I asked him whether the office would be redecorated this summer.
- Sally: You didn't!
- Alex: I did ... You know how these redecorations can sometimes cause a lot of trouble. But then he told me that it would probably not be necessary because we might be moving!
- Sally: Oh boy ... Did he say when?
- Alex: Not really. He just suggested that it might not happen anytime soon. But from a few things he said, it sounded like it could happen before the end of the year.
- Sally: That is soon.
- Alex: Yes! And what really worries me is that the office might be moved further from downtown. That would make life so difficult – long commuting to work, not having time to take the children to school, getting home late. It will be a nightmare.
- Sally: Come on, Alex. We don't even know for sure if or when it might happen. So, before we start worrying, I think we need to find someone who could give us a more accurate report of what is going on ...
