

Exercise 1: Passive voice (1)

Change the sentences into the passive. Keep the same tense. Type the sentences into the box.

1. The supermarket has replaced the old shelves.

2. My parents made a shopping list.

3. Chileans were growing grapes over a thousand years ago.

4. People would exchange goods for food.

5. Mandy won't use their products again.

6. The assistants have packed your shopping.

Exercise 2: Passive voice (2)

Click on any mistakes in the sentences. If there isn't a mistake, tick the box.

1. ☐ Food is be delivered by lorry drivers.
2. ☐ Unused food must to be thrown away.
3. ☐ All the food has been being sold by the supermarket.
4. ☐ People can to shop here.
5. ☐ These things are flown to Europe every day.
6. ☐ What will it be used as a shopping list in the future?

Exercise 3: Prepositions

Type the correct answer into the box. Use each word once.

at by from in on to

1. The next train Liverpool leaves in five minutes.
2. The plane arrives Barcelona very early in the morning.
3. If your dad can't take us, we can go the bus.
4. We leave Paris six o'clock in the evening.
5. The train Manchester will be here soon.
6. Kate goes to work bicycle.

Exercise 1: Passive voice (1)

Change the sentences into the passive. Keep the same tense. Type the sentences into the box.

1. The supermarket has replaced the old shelves.

The old shelves have been replaced by the supermarket.

2. My parents made a shopping list.

A shopping list was made by my parents.

3. Chileans were growing grapes over a thousand years ago.

Grapes were being grown by Chileans over a thousand years ago.

4. People would exchange goods for food.

Goods would be exchanged for food.

5. Mandy won't use their products again.

Their products won't be used again by Mandy.

6. The assistants have packed your shopping.

Your shopping has been packed by the assistants.

Exercise 2: Passive voice (2)

Click on any mistakes in the sentences. If there isn't a mistake, tick the box.

- ☐ Food is be delivered by lorry drivers.
- ☐ Unused food must to be thrown away.
- ☐ All the food has been being sold by the supermarket.
- ☐ People can to shop here.
- ☒ These things are flown to Europe every day.
- ☐ What will it be used as a shopping list in the future?

Exercise 3: Prepositions

Type the correct answer into the box. Use each word once.

at by from in on to

- The next train to Liverpool leaves in five minutes.
- The plane arrives in Barcelona very early in the morning.
- If your dad can't take us, we can go on the bus.
- We leave Paris at six o'clock in the evening.
- The train from Manchester will be here soon.
- Kate goes to work by bicycle.